Full set of medals for Seagulls pair

JAMIE Druce and Taylor Priest each claimed a full set of medals as a six-strong squad of Seagulls swimmers claimed nine medals between them at the Dorset County Graded Meet in Weymouth.

Druce claimed gold in the 14yrs 100m breaststroke in 1:22.54, silver in 100m freestyle (1:05.35) and bronze in the 100m backstroke (1:20.43).

FULL SET: Seagulls' Jamie Druce won gold, silver and bronze at Weymouth

Priest's medals came in the 13yrs 100m backstroke (gold 1:18.92), 100m butterfly (silver 1:20.98) and 100m freestyle (bronze 1:11.39).

Connor Sleightholme's gold (1:16.20) and Priest's silver gave the Christchurch club a one-two in the butterfly.

Other Seagulls medallists were Peter Lawson with silver in the 10yrs 50m butterfly (43.90) and Rebecca Simpson with bronze in the 11yrs 100m freestyle (1:19.82).

Dorset's newest club, Gillingham Turbos, went home with a large cache of medals including seven golds – from Emma Williamson in the 16/o 100m backstroke, breaststroke and freestyle, 11-year-olds Charlotte Stone (10m fly and back) and Luke Elam (50m back) and Fergus Dalwood (12yrs 100m breaststroke).

Gemma Cherrett headed Blandford's eight-medal tally with gold on all four strokes in the 15yrs age group.

Team mate David Charlston won the 16/o 100m fly, back and freestyle while Keeley Neale took the 9yrs 50m breaststroke.

Two Wareham swimmers won gold – Gemma Woolley in the 13yrs 100m fly and freestyle and David Lyons in the 10yrs 50m freestyle.

There were medals aplenty for most of Dorset's bigger clubs.

Poole's gold tally included four from Alex Holloway (15yrs), two from Danni Callahan (14yrs) and one from Hannah Dicker (12yrs).

Bournemouth Dolphins' golds included two each from Joshua Burton (12yrs) and 14-year-olds Nikita Lee and Miroslava Bobeva, plus one each from Meghan Thomas (16/o) and 10-year-olds Emily Moore and Samantha Bush.
